THEHOTH International HOTH Products

Introduction

Although the HOTH was originally intended to be English only, and primarily focused on US, Can, UK, and Australian markets, many international customers have come to us asking if our products would work on foreign language keywords. So over time we have ran campaigns in many countries, even non-English and had great success.

Arguably, The HOTH may work even better in foreign countries since some of these markets are not as competitive as the US English market.

Here's a complete rundown of our products and which ones can be used for foreign languages:

HOTH Products For Foreign Languages

Product	Use Foreign Language?	How It Works
HOTH Boost	Yes	This product accepts international and non-English keywords as long as they are roman characters (no Japanese, Chinese, Hebrew, etc). The articles and subject have to be in Roman characters as well.
HOTH Blitz	Yes	HOTH Blitz accepts international and non-English keywords as long as they are roman characters (no Japanese, Chinese, Hebrew, etc). The articles and subject has to be in Roman characters as well.

Recommendations

International SEO / Localization is based on a number of different factors including language, server location, TLD, etc. After all these factors are optimized it's helpful to get localized links as well to build a foundation for the ultra-targeted links you'll get from the HOTH. We wrote an article about international SEO here.

The Results

The following are all campaigns and keywords that the HOTH has worked on. Some keywords are foreign, some are simply localized for countries outside of the US.

While these are anecdotal and there are many other factors in making these site's rank, our customers have reported success with using the HOTH on foreign sites / keywords.
